
Transforming practice: Transforming lives through diverse children's literature

Thank-you letters from fourth graders about Drs Diaspora

Thank ya'll so much for teaching me about Africa!

I now want to live
there because of all the wonderful things ya'll taught me about Africa.

I want to live in Uganda. Ya'll are super inspiring to me. I'm so happy you got to teach me!

- Charlotte

Thank You So much for the things I learned in your class!
I had no idea that ~~that~~ black father was based off african culture
and I was also surprised when you said the richest person was from ~~the~~ hall!

once again,
Thank
you!

Dear Drs. Diaspora,

You guys talk me so much about Africa. You guys are so kind, nice, and have a lot of patience. It is cool that the richest man in the world lived in Mali, which is in Africa.

I sort of want to move to Africa. I love Africa. I can't believe there are 55 countries in Africa. That's more countries than America has states. I wonder how many states are in Africa. I also can't believe they speak a few thousand languages.

I am going to miss you.
Thank you!
Owen

Dear Mrs. Diaspora,
Thank you so much for teaching me so much about Africa! I had so much fun!
I was very interested in the Adinkra simbles. I learned that Africa is unique and normal at the same time! I still can't believe that Africa has fifty-five countrys! Thank you again for taking time off of your day to teach me about Africa!

Yours Truly,

Zara 4th Grade

Dear Drs. Diaspora,

I've learned so much about

Africa, Slavery,
and their cultures.

It was so

fun.

Thank you

from,

Avery

Dear Drs. Diascord,

Thank You So much

for teaching me about africa

I love ~~learn~~ erhing about mahq mysa

and the sim bols I liked erhing about the regors.

I wish we could do more lesons with you even though we were on zoom I still learned so much I hope we can learn ~~it~~ person next year

thank you so much.

From
Duncan [unclear]
[unclear]